Volume XXXI.

TERMS OF ADVERTISING. quare 10 lines or less, one input's $1.00 VEARLY ADVERTISING.

GEORGE HOUSE. REAL ESTATE BROKER.

> ROBINSON'S BUILDING. GALLIPOLIS, OHIO.

-REPERENCESsen, President 1st National Bank Mach 15, 1866.

JOHN C. VANDEN, NOTARY PUBLIC.

OFFICE-Auditor's Office, Court House GALLIPOLIS, OHIO. March 15, 1866 .-- 3m.

4. HATWARD, W. C HATWARD, W. G. PULLER HAYWARD & FULLER.

COR THIRD & STATE STREETS,

GALLIPOLIS, OHIO.

DEALERS in Furniture, Pianos, Carpets, Mattings, Wall-paper, Window Curtains and general House Forersming Gooms. Pieture Frames and Looking Glasses made to order. Goods delivered free of charge, to Agents for Singer's. WHERLER & WILSON'S.
Howar' Geover a Barry's and Parrier's EEWING MACHINES.
Feb. 22, 1866 —tf.

DUFOUR HOUSE. Steamboat Landing

GALLIPOLIS, OHIO. J. B. DUDDING & CO.,

THIS Commodious House has just been completed and newly furnished. It is pleasantly situated, commanding a view of the river for miles in either direction, and is open all hours day and night, for the accommodation of the traveling Public.

June 29, 1865.—tf.

GARNETT HOUSE. JAS. E. RICHARDSON, GALLIPOLIS, OHIO.

Every attention paid to the comfort of

C. J. MENAGER, ATTORNEY AT LAW

GALLIPOLIS, O. PROSECUTES Pension and Bounty Money Claims with diligence, promptness, and fidelity. Office, west side of the Public Square. Nev. 25, 1864.

Dr. JAMES R. BELL Tenders his professional services to the citi

OFFICE Bailey & Magnet's Drug Store, Second S re RESIDENCE, Fourth Street North side. Bear the Academy.
GALLIPOLIS, OHIO.

June, 15, 1865 .-- ly.

MOLLOHAN & NASH. Attorneys at Law.

CHARLESTON, WEST VA. WILL PRACTICE IN KANAWER, AND ABSOLU COLLECTIONS PROMPT

COUNTIES. COLLECTIONS I (OFFICE OVER SHIELDS.)

Peb. 15. 1866,-tf.

JOHN A. ROBINSON. Wholesale Grocer.

LOWER SIDE

Public Square,

Gallipolis, Ohio.

Jan. 1, 1866. J. A. VAN VLECK. RESIDENT DENTIST,

FRONT STREET, BETWEEN CEDAR AND SPRUCE, GALLIPOLIS, OHIO. A LL work warranted. Charges moderate.

None but the best material used. All modern improvements furnished.

Sept. 28, 1865, Medical Notice. R. WM. S. NEWTON, formerly of Iron-tios, but more recently of the army, as his professional services to the people Gallis county.

Residence 1st door above Baptist Church
d Street, Office in Hayward's New Building Office hours, 8 to 9 A. M. and 4 to 5 P. M. Oct. 12, 1865.—tf.

I. M. BEMAN. II S. Claim Agent, CENTREVILLE

GALLIA Co., O. Address him to Person, or by Letter.

AUTHORIEND MILITARY AND NAVAL CLAIM AGENCY E. W. CLARK, Jr.,

OFFICE OVER J. C. SERFARD'S STORE. GALLIPOLIS, OHIO The undersigned takes pleasure in an nouncing that he has established an Agency-for the collection of all Claums, of whatever kind, against the Government of the U. S Ulaims for Pensions, Bounty, Back Pay, Prize Money, &c. promptly adjusted.

CLAIMS FOR PROPERTY TAKEN BY THE ARM for the use of the Government, whether vouche were given or otherwise collected with dispate Special attention given to the collection of ditional Boomty for two or three years' social who have never received but one hundred dolla

BAILEY & CHERINGTON MINERAL & OIL LANDS. BOOK ACENTS. -washing m-

> CINCINNATI Dailies, Weekly and Monthly Periodicals, School Books, SECOND STREET, ABOVE STATE. GALLIPOLIS ONIO.

J. G. BLACK ORD.

GENERAL Forwarding & Commission

MERCHANT, Parkersburg Va.

agent for the Parkersburg, Gallipolis, Ka nawha and Cincinnati Steamers.

Mark Packages "Care J. G. BLACKFORD, PARKERSBURG, Va., PIRST NATIONAL BANK GALLIPOLIS.

Designated Depository AND FUNANCIAL ACENT OF THE UNITED STATES.

EDWARD DELETOMBE L. PERRY, Vacu Parsoners

GEO. W. JACKSON, Capital Stock, $100,000.

Boys Gold, Silver, U. S. Bonds, Con

Government accurities of all kinds. ank oper from 10 A. M. to 3 P. M. HENKING'S BUILDING, UP STAIRS. GEO. W. JACKSON, Cashier.

ANOTHER CHANGE. JAMES MEIKLE, CARRIAGE AND WAGON MANUFACTURER. LOWER ENL OF THIRD STREET. GALLIPOLIS, OHIO.

I have purchased the stand lately occupied y C. M. Cole, and am now prepared to annufacture everything in the above line to order.

Repairing done quickly and at reasonable Dec. 7, '65-tf.

BAILEY & GHERINGTON LIVERY AND SALE STABLE,

SECOND STREET ABOVE STATE.

GALLIPOLIS OHIO. LIVERY & SALE

STABLE.

AT THE CORNER OF FOURTH AND COURT STREET.

have opened a STABLE, supplied with good RIDING AND DRIVING HORSES I have also a good two horse Hack and driver for the accommodation of Families and Parties.

Particular care taken with Stock, and its board provided for a day, week, month, a longer on most reasonable terms. I am all ways in the market to buy or sell Horses.

W. H. McCORMICK. Oct. 5, 7865 .- tf. J. V. HOVER,

-DEALER IN-Fine Liquors, Whiskies, Brandies, Wines, &c., BOTTLED ALE.

Fine Tobacco, and Cigars UNDER PRIESTLEY'S STORE, COR. COURT, AND SECOND STREET, GALLIPOLIS, OHIO.

All Orders promptly filled on reason ble terms, and Goods warranted as repre Oct. 5, 1885.

Carpets at Reduced Rates.

HAYWARD & FULLER have marked down their stock of Carpets. Call and March 29, 1866. For Sale.

DESIRABLE residence on Front Street good location, several town lots, also abor of Farms. Enquire of GEO HCUSE, Real Estate Broker. March 15, 1866. . 79 10

ARBON OIL-A No. 1 article W. L. SHARP.

Butter! Butter!! mity Money, Arrespe of Poy, and Contained in to teningue all the butter contained in company week, milk, and is Butter contained in company week, milk, and is Butter

Gallipolis and Guyandotte Packet,

FAWN No. 2

THIS steamer will run between Gallipe and Geyandotte, making daily trips
She will leave Guyandotte every morning at 6 o'clock, and returning will leave Gullipel's every afternoon, at such hour as will best suit passengers and shippers. She will connect at Gallipolis, with the steamer Victrees for crov, and at Guyandotte with the packer or fronton.

The Fawn has just been newly fitted up with new machinery, &c., and is in good con-lition for business

The citizens along this route will find it to their advantage. in a pecuniary point of view, to patronize this beat. She will land at every and all points on both sides of the river, and her charges will correspond with the fall in Gold.

This boa' has been fitted up by Mr. Jona

THAN HAMILTON, and will be come Capt. Samuel Hamilton. April 12, '66.

Notice TO Warren W. Womeldorff, of the State of California, you are hereby notified that the said plaintiff Samuel R. Womeldorff, on the 26th day of April A. D. 1866, filed his petition in the Court of Common Pleas, within and for the county of Gallia, and State of Ohio, against the said Warren W. Womeldorff, setting forth that the said Warren W. Womeldorff, on the 3d day of March. A. D. 1852, made his promissory note under seal of that date, his promissory note under seal of that date, and thereby promised to pay to Margaret A. Womeldorff or bearer, two bundred dollars, two years after date with intrest from date, that the said Margaret A. Womeldorff then and there, for a valuable consideration deliv-ced the said momissory note to the said plaintiff, whereby the said plaintiff then and there became the lawful owner and holder thereof, and entitled to demand and have the father was before me. I was a good money due thereon; that the said sum of two hand at my trade, and I worked bundred dollars with interest thereon, from March 3d, A. D 1852, seconding to the tonor and effect of said promissery note, is still due, four years of age I married a girl and owing to said plaintiff from said defend who was also a weaver. She was aut, and for 2d cause of section said patition quiet, amiable, and industrious, and ant at his request; that the said defendant has not paid said sum of muney, nor may part thereof, but t exame with the interest there-on from July 20th 1862, is still due and owing to the plaintiff from said defendant. Said petition prays judgment against said defendant.

Said petition prays judgment against said defendant, for the sum of seven hundred four-teen 50-100 dollars, with interest of two hundred dollars from March 3-1 1552, and on five hundred and fourteen dollars and fifty going to leave us, and you may have been much said for foreman in our receiving room is going to leave us, and you may have been much said.

tice by publication.

And the said defendant is hereby notified that he is required to appear and answer said duties, petition on or before the third Saturday after consist

I. Worseldorff and Warres W. Womeldorff on the 4th day dried W. W. Womeldorff, on the 4th day friend to me and warres where the fire of the foreign of the f derff and W. W. Womelderff, on the 4th day of March A. D. 1852, made their extain promised to pay Julius Reguier on order, the sum of three hundred dollars, on or before the 4th day of March A. D. 1854, or before the 4th day of March A. D. 1854, for me one morning, and told me the with ten percent interest until paid, and then and there delivered the same to the said Julius Regnier, and thereby promised to pay to the said Julius Regnier or order, the same to the said Julius Regnier or order, the same to firm were so pleased with my steady to the said Julius Regnier or order, the same to offer me the situation of foreman, with a sulary of two hundred a year, and there is the furniture. We continued to live gloomy aspect of my affairs came quietly enough; but we spent, I am serry to say, somewhat more than with a sulary of two hundred a year, and that the said Julius Regnier or order the same to pleased with my steady to offer me the situation of foreman, with a sulary of two hundred a year, and the table, the gloomy aspect of my affairs came to offer me the situation of foreman, with a sulary of two hundred a year, and the table, the furniture. We continued to live gloomy aspect of my affairs came to offer me the situation of foreman, with a sulary of two hundred a year, and the table, the furniture. We continued to live gloomy aspect of my affairs came to offer me the situation of foreman, with a sulary of two hundred a year. until paid; and that the said Julius R guier to be paid quarterly. I thanked the did, then and there endors and deliver said head of the firm most gratefully for a note to the said plaintiff, that said defend his kindness, and assured him that promissory note under sent, whereby they promise to pay to Julius Regnier or order, the sum of ninety-five dollars, two years after that said promisery note under seal has been legally endorsed and assigned to the said plaintiff, and he has become I gally entitled to demand and receive the amount due there n; yet the said defendants have not paid any part thereof to Julius Regnier before said as-signment, nor to the said plaintiff since the twenty deliars, with interest on three hundred deliars, from March 4th 1852, at ten per cent, and on ninety five deliars, at ten per cent, from April 22d, 1852, and on twenty-five from March 1st, 1852

With said petition were filed the necessary affidavirs for an order of attachment, and notice by publication. And the said defendants are hereby notified that they are required to appear and answer said petition on or before the 3d Salurda after he 26th day of June next.

SAMUEL B. WOMELDORFF.

May 10, 1865-Sw. 1. J. Pursell, & Co.

--- IMPORTERS AND DEALERS IN-QUEENSWARE, CHINA, GLASS, BRITTANIA-WARE, CARBON OIL, LAMPS AND FIXT. RES. ENTERPLISE ROW, FRONT STREET, PORTSMOUTH, OHIO.

For the Journal. Lines to Ross S-d.

Loved friend, from thy scenes of pleasure, One transient moment lend, And to the days of "auld lang syne," Let sweeter memories blend.

Those social days, to us, how dear, When hope t you of promise, so bright, Shone radiant, and illumed our path, Forever like a star of light.

Yet, they are gone, we need not sigh. Or, for their presence fondly yearn; Though we shed tears of heart regret, They can never, never more return.

Time with swift wings, may fly, Earth's we octost flowers fade! But life—warm friendship never dies Though in the silent touch we're laid.

Would that our hearts might even be, Perchance, in future years thou'lt find, for the endearments thy youth knew. And sigh, though later ties may bind, For those,—the early loved and true.

Mayhap, while trooding life's thorny vale, Thou it pame and mose, o'er Joya depar Thea, a liantly drop-affection itear, For triends, the warmest hearted. Twere sweet to think, thy memory fond, Oue name, will bold the nearest. That in they heart's most setred place. That mame, will ever be the dearest.

O hear my board-breathed prayer for thee, Kind singule shield thee from all care; And when life to thleams task is o'er, May we a heaven share BEULAH BYRTON. Picasant View. April 36th.

Keeping up Appearances.

A STORT HEARD IN PRISON. four years of age I married a girl and owing to said plants and patients and and patient and for 2d cause of setion and patient and for 2d cause of setion and patient and a family, but as we were in contributions, for so much money by the said paintiff before that time prid, laid out and except the wolf from the said for the use of the said definition, but lived in comfort and re-

When I was about thirty five years of age, the head partner said:
"We have always been much saids With said p-tition were filed the necessary his appointment if you like."

I was overloved at the off his kindness, and assured him that by they promised to pay to the said plaint ff by name of S. B. Womeldooff or order, the sum of twenty-five dollars on d-mand, yet the said defendents have not paid the said sum of wife of our good fortune, she was said defendents have not paid the said sum of wife of our good fortune, she was in possesmoney nor any part thereof. And for a 3d completely overwhelmed by it, and cruse of action he said plaintiff avere that said defendants by the names of if J. Womeld off or the 22d day of April A. D. 1852, made then certain other partner had called me "Mr. C." she for some time could hardly realize it; but when I told her that the head out the head of the head over the head out the he was even more pleased than I had been myself. "And why should you not be date, with ten per cent interest, until paid.

"And why should you not be and then and there delivered said note to said called Mr. C.?' she said, "I am sure Julius Regaisr; and the said plaintiff avers you would make as good a gentle called Mr. C.?' she said, "I am sure man as the best of them."

"Fair and softly, my dear," said I 'Let us first feel our feet, and then we will talk of that afterward." My duties were not more severe than formerly, but far more responsi

Said petition prays judgment against said ble; for I was entrusted with con efendants, for the sum of four hundred and siderable sums of money to pay the workmen. Once a week my books were audited by the firm, and I was frequently compliment d. not only on my exactitude, but also, as I was a good penman, on the nest manner

Although my income was now two hundred a year, it had not increased much in reality, or it had been suggested to me that now I was in a situation of trust and responsibility. it was hardly just that I should allow my wife to trudge like a common waver. I, without hesitating ad mitted the justice of the remark, but I hardly thought my wife would agree to it; however, I was determined to try her, so I told her when I went home in the evening, that I hardly thought it right she should continue at the loom, considering the position in lite we were now in. To my great surprise, my wife not only made no WE have on hand, and are constantly re-ceiving, QUEENSWARE, in all its varieties, objection, but positively told me she of our own importation, which we offer at as had already thought so; and she had verable terms as the same goods can be wished to speak to me on the subject, tained elsewhere. We sail duplicate but did not like to, as she was afraid darget-barrels, and kits; Also Herrings is barrels and boxes, Colfish, etc. etc. for sale barrels and boxes, Colfish, etc. etc. for sale barrels and boxes, Colfish, etc. etc. for sale by the by the barrels and boxes, Colfish, etc. etc. for sale by the barrels and boxes, Colfish, etc. etc. for sale do now." I replied. "And it is a shout for some time said:

"Tilly," said a mother to her twenty-six counties heard from.

"The old gentleman is a very sharp fellow, my dear Take care you do which this tenant I would rather look for another house of business. On the shameful thing for him to want it, shameful thing for some time said:

"The old gentleman is a very shameful thing for him to want it, shameful thing for shameful thing for him to want it, shameful thing for shameful thing for him to want it, shameful thing for shameful thing for him to want it.

"The old gentleman is a very shameful thing for him to want it.

"The old gentleman is a very shameful thing for him to want it.

"The old gentleman is a very shameful thing for him to want it.

"The old gentleman is a very shameful thing for him to want it.

"The old gentleman is a very shameful thing for GALLIPOLIS, OHIO, MAY 17, 1866. "Wel, dear," said my wife. "I higher folks than you suppose."

think you are right. Be-lies, there's
'I do not wish to speak about family matters at all," I said; at "any iving here with common weavers, rate, you need not be afraid of me. and mixing with them which is not But what makes you think they be our position. And then the girls are? re growing up, and they ought to do "Well, my dear," said my wife, comething better than marry wear-coloring slightly, "I don't know how vife's remark and requested her to as a partner." for another lodging or house, which she promise! to do. next day when I returned home I found my wife had busied herself in finding a new house for us She had set her mind on one in the loxion Road. It was certainly con at the same time with so guilty a sidemably larger than our own, and look in her countenance, that in case nucli more expensive. We were it were mentioned I would not conirst fight. It was to let off the first although it was a source of quarsel there was no one in the counting some single gentleman who appearance we should creatsideration. This somewhat us for the moment, but my she would soon make up nt by the rent of the rooms. regularly his rent every week expenses to meet at the I was overjoyed at the offer, and two days afterward I entered on my duties. They was very light, and consisted principally in receiving the work brought loops by the work.

ble we can mix with people in a bet ter position of life than ourselves. "How much money should you determination.

experienced this time considerable difficulty. However, I got the money at last, and my wife bought Charlotte some new things; and we got inti mate with the clerk's family who appeared very genteel people, and took quiteright, considering the difference lieve we are better off than we really it occurred, but they all believe you I was struck with the justice of my are likely to be taken into the house I was exceedingly angry when I heard this, and I inquired of my wife from what source such an infa mous falsehood proceeded?

She replied that she did not know. but implored me so strenuously, and time so that in point of fact we away.

should have all the credit for the ap tor and the family to dine with us: in my pocket. When I saw the head arise on the earth, and we shall have er rent than we then were but before the day arrived, I found partner he received me very coolly, dimented my wife on her my wife had got considerably into and told me that on the next Satur arrangements; the house debt in the netghborhood, and I was day my books were to be examined. E and in a few weeks we again obliged to apply to the loan and a new system was to be adopted. office for assistance. The secretary I promised everything should be in and about A. D. 1860 or '61 there ough the rent of the house told me they would consider my ap be more than our old one plication, and let me know the result. and let off the first floor, and in a few days theiradecision came. It was not only that they refar greater, there was the fused to advance me any more money, of furnishing to be taken but that when my outstanding bills were due, they should certainly press for the full amount.

This news came like a clap of thunder on me. What to do I knew and without difficulty a ten not, or where to find the money our first floor, a young man, To add to my sorrow, six months insurance office. He was rent was owing on the house, and the landlord was pressing for it However, I shut my eyes to the cirng the money we had paid that as the dinner party should be cumstance for the moment, resolving e extra furniture, but my wife over, I would turn over a new leaf. to do so till later, as she and insist on far greater economy being practiced in the bouse. The day arrived for the dinner party, for which my wife had made great preparations. Before leaving And the said defendant is hereby notified that he is required to appear and answer and petition on or before the third Saturday after the 20th day of June next.

SAMUEL B. WOMELDORFF. hy S. A. Nasu, his Attorney. May 10. 1866.—6w.

To Return J. Womeldorff, both of the State of Chilor nis. You are hereby notified find Warren W. Womeldouff, on the Schi day of April A. D. 1866, field his petition. In the Cast of Course with nand for the county of Gallery, in the State of Ohio, against the said lecture.

Womeldoff and Warren W. Womeldouff, on the Schi day of April A. D. 1866, field his petition in the Cast of Chilor on Pleas with nand for the county of Gallery, in the State of Ohio, against the said lecture.

Womeldoff and Warren W. Womeldoff and the State of Ohio, against the said lecture.

Womeldoff and Warren W. Womeldoff and the county of Gallery in the State of Ohio, against the said lecture.

Womeldoff and Warren W. Womeldoff and the State of Ohio, against the said lecture.

Womeldoff and Warren W. Womeldoff and Warren W the house, I took the opportunity of somewhat into debt for the purchase ternative but to leave him in pos

And for a 2d cause of action, that the said of the collection of the latest time and w. W. Womeldorff, on the 1-t day of and W. W. Womeldorff, on the 1-t day of March A. D. 1852, made their certain other little flattered by it.) "You can now promissory note in writing of that date, where on the part is a soon as wife's love of dress increased, against any opposition on the part is a soon as wife's love of dress increased. on the first floor had begun to show sion, and that the same day we were est daughter, and she had every party. Something must be done, but reason to believe it would end in an what? To brighten up my thoughts, offer. His family, she said, were I called for another glass of spirits very respectable, and it woold and water. As I drank it the idea be an excellent match; and she con- came to my mind that a considerable sidered the best thing we could do sum of money was at that moment in would be to get acquainted with my possession, but it was my emthem. I told her we must be care ployers. Why could I not torrow ful what we did. I had no objection some without their knowing it? If I to make the acquaintance of the could pay out the broker's man, I young fellow's family; but at the should redeem to a certain extent same time we must be careful not to my credit. To morrow, I argued, 1 increase our expenditures, as I had will sell off everything, and replace great difficulty in keeping up the the amount. The sale of my furnipayment of the interest of the money ture would be enough for that and had borrowed from the loan office | the payment of the money I owed "My dear," said my wife, "What to the loan office as well. The idea nonsense you talk. How is it possi | then occurred to me, that my wife might oppose me, but I silently and solemnly swore that no persussion of append no more that we do new?' hers should induce me to altar my want? I inquired.

"I do not exactly know. I must business. There was a considerable get the girl some new dresses, and sum in the till, of which I kept the we must cut a dash a little. You key-more than one hundred and know, after all, she said, "that if he fifty pounds. I took from it, trembmarries Charlotte, you will not be at ling the while like a leaf, the money the expense of maintaining her, so in I required, and not a shilling more. chise Bill, implores "an outraged the long run, it will be no loss to us." and shortly afterward, pleading a I gave in to her plan, and I ap violent headache, I returned home plied at the lone office for more and paid out the broker, to the great be able to do it. Had they triumphed in the war, the Gazette knows as December, Holmes, 55 the 29th of in the war, the Gazette knows as of our own importants. We still duplicate favorable true as the same goods can be obtained elsewhere. We still duplicate but did not like to, as she was afraid classified elsewhere. We still duplicate but did not like to, as she was afraid classified elsewhere. We still duplicate but did not like to, as she was afraid classified elsewhere. We still duplicate but did not like to, as she was afraid classified elsewhere. We still duplicate but did not like to, as she was afraid classified elsewhere. Alter I had been a few months in my new position, my wife one night told me. "Our landlord called to-day my increasing debts, went on flour my increasing debts, went on flour my increasing debts, went on flour is and I paid him for the quarter. He talks about increasing our rent. He talks about increasing debts, went on flour is any in the exercise of political rights they may for the patient delay in the exercise of political rights they are the house to o to us immensely. We visited each other's houses occasionally, and at till the wedding was over, and then she would have offered no objection Many times I was on the point of telling her of the desperate action I had committed, for I would not acknowledge to myself it was a dis-honest one, although I should have considered it infamous in another. Charlotte at last came to my wife's aid, and her tears quite subdued my aid, and her tears quite subdued my courage. As the license for her marriage had already been obtained, friend P. would say, I have some of I a last gave way; and it was understood between us, that as soon as the narriage came off, which was to take onward, allver shoe buckles, &c., &c.

twenty-five pounds a year, tradict it, that I fully perceived it cos farty without taxes. It was a piece of boasting of her own for far more respectable. I scolded her severely on the matter. It is considered to be made in the man of the bible, they may find the matter of paving the weavers, which had already been hinted at once or may say. But to the matter: in Fleur de Lis street, should certainly contradict it. For twice, and that my accounts would that upon a plan to make tunately, nothing on the subject was be audited on the next Saturday, the censive than it appeared at mentioned during the evening, and last in the month. When I arrived. between me and wife for some days house, and on the desk was a new oved in the city in the day afterward, the affair at last died blank cheque book. The devil Austria, and then commences the prompted me, and I neatly abstracted from it a blank cheque and put it readiness, and left him. ed on forging my employer's name to then war, famine and pestilence will a cheque for one hundred pounds; stock abroad over the Isnd. Murbut when I took the pen in my hand, ders, arson, incest, theft and all other I lost all courage. Still, I argued, it crimes will be rife in the land. Hope must be done; and I went to the will depart from every human breast public house, and after drinking two Governments that have been deeme glass of gin and water, I had suffi- impregnable will topple and fall, but cient nerve to commit the forgery.

But now how was I to get the check cashed? At last I remembered ning of this end will pass away, and He readily promised to do so, and kept his word; but unfortunately he 4th. Forty-nive years of this patribroken heart. Some weavers kindly 1780. assisted my children, but the young est were sent to the workhouse and atim. my family broken up. I have paid dearly enough for a couple of years gentility. When I leave here, God only knows what I shall do; my char acter is gone and no one will employ WILLIAM GIEBERT.

AP John Minor Botts gently reminds the reconstructed that if they called me "Mister," and I was not a of our misfortunes, and I will now was a most rigid retrenchment. This they had the power? Mr. Botts and they had the power? Mr. Botts answers: "In the month of July, 1861, the Convention of Virginia passed an or dinance declaring "That any citizen of Virginia holding office under the Government of the United States after the 31st of July, 1861, should be forever banished from the State and be declared an alien enemy, and things venerable and sacred, replied, that any citizen of Virginia hereafter undertaking to represent the State of three minutes!" Virginia in the Congress of the United States, should in addition to the above penalties, be considered guilty of treason and his property to be liable to confiscation.

"Yet those who voted for and those who approved this measure of vindictive harshness towards those ently modest ladies were willing to who declined to surrender their exhibit themseles, till the present birthright as citizens of the freest style of hoops-small at the top and and best government on earth, or very large at the bottom-came in to make a voluntary relinquishment vogue. A lady was surprised, reof their great inheritance of freedom. cently, on remarking to a gentleman are now the most clamorous to rep- friend that the "spring opening" was resent the people in this same Cou- at hand, by his replying, "Yes, I gress of the United States, and set suppose spring has come, for I see up an universal howl of indignation, the ladies have taken off their flanand implore the wrath of God and nel petticoats." And this saucy inman on the heads of those who pro- dividual had no better chance for obpose to give them a small dose of servation than every men on the their own medicine.

The Nashville Gazette announcing the passage of the Fran the 3d day of next October, Motley. people to bear the fresh indignity with fortitude." They will probably 3d of November, Longfellow, 57 the The dinner passed off in a most satisfactory manner, although per haps it appeared more so to me than Tennessee, much less vote and hold Curtis. 40 the 24th of February; Stodit really was from the quantity of effice. Mason of Virginia, before wine I was obliged to drink to drawn the act of necession was passed upon the thought of the action I had comat Richmond, admonished Union men were born in New England except mitted. The next morning I rose that they must cast their fortunes with a severe headache; and my wife with the Confederacy or leave the was so overcome with her exertions State on the peril of their lives, and Maine, Rhode Island, Connecticut of old things. I like old medals, old papers, old keepsakes, and in fact, all old things that bear the impress of old times upon them save and ex-But to the point, as our old place in a fortnight, my plan would Among the former I find a very cu One morning in the next week I received a message from the firm to attend at the City house of business about some alteration in my duties dents of the bible, they may find

Number 26 For the Journal. Remarkable Revolutionary Prophecy. Mr. EDITOR:-I am a con

"What may hoppen in less than hundred years, A. D. 1780."

1st. About the year A. D. 1848 or 49, their will be in Europe a revolution, either in France, Italy or beginning of the end, spoken of by wars and rumors of wars. 2d. Scarcely has this turmoil in Europe expired before our own America will have taken up the tumult will be a division in the United States. 'I was now desperate, and I resolv. The South will go to herself, and that my daughter's suitor was to call upon the broad earth there will exist in the evening, and I resolved to no government, such as now exists. make him my tool. When I arrived or which may exist up to that timeat home I again applied to the bottle all will be overturned—all will be for courage, and as he was leaving destroyed. Those then on earth will the house I told him I should be return to the government of the patobliged to him if he would get a riarchs, and the son of many descen-check cashed for me at the London dants will rule and govern as in the and County Bank the next day, and days of Abraham, Issac and Jacob,

There you have it, verbatim et liter Yours, &c., A CONTRIBUTOR.

Odds and Ends. Why is John Bigger's boy larger than his father? Because be is little Bigger. Why is the rinderpest like a mouse? Because the cat'll catch it.

What is the worst kind of sympathy? To be pittied by the small pox Though a man may not like to be talked about in the papers, he would rather be an editor's subject than a held a legal as well as a military office in Venice. He was a tawny general. When Voltaire was ordered by the senators of Geneva to quit the dominions of the little republic in 24 hours, the incorrigible scoffer at all

It has been discovered that Othello

Magnificent sirs, it requires only CAMBRIDGE AND HARVARD. When Cambridge Dons, with Tory air, Their scorn of Thompson's boon declare The world will read their answer thus-

Shall big U S. teach little Few persons, we apprehend, were aware of the extent to which appar-

Bancroft will be 64 years of see 50 the 15th of April; Emerson, 81 the 25th day of May; Bryant, 70 the